

22nd and 24th June (9am to 1pm)
Hosted by: Mick Fitzgerald

They're back!! Because of COVID 19 we have made the decision that the next Overview of Racing seminar will once again be virtual – see what people said about the 2021 virtual seminar(→)... and we've made changes. The seminar will now be spread over 2 days giving more time to take everything in and to discuss the issues with other participants

So... If you want to develop a career in horseracing or perhaps you are new to the industry and would like to expand your knowledge of the sport this is the perfect way to begin. Get a jump start with this seminar, delivered by the National Horseracing College on behalf of the British Horseracing Authority (BHA). It offers a friendly and fascinating introduction to the world of racing.

You will learn how the various organisations involved in racing work together to deliver a compelling and highly popular sport. You will have the unique opportunity to ask questions of, and discuss issues with, some of racing's most experienced people.

A packed agenda covers many aspects of this complex sport. Subjects covered include:

- The British Horseracing Authority;
- Funding the racing industry;
- Racecourses;
- Racing Administration and the rules of racing;
- People Welfare in the industry;
- Racehorse Ownership; and
- The Breeding industry.

You will have the chance to discuss key issues facing the industry such as horse welfare and gambling.

Whether you are new to the industry, are planning a career in the industry or simply want to learn more, this seminar is for you.

People liked the virtual seminar in 2020!

"I thoroughly enjoyed listening to all the guest speakers which has enabled me to have a better understanding of the whole of the racing industry and not just the part I currently work in."

"The whole day was a delight to be part of, having been brought up with horseracing continuously in the background...working for the Jockey Club...I was pleasantly surprised at what I didn't know and how much information I have now gained from the many speakers. It was a triumph to all involved"

"I thought the seminar was a fantastic intro into the world of racing. Each presenter was inciteful and delivered a very informative presentation."

Don't miss YOUR opportunity to learn about the racing industry from these highly successful seminars.
